REVIEWS – VINOUS / ANTONIO GALLONI (JUNE/AUGUST 2020)

• 2018 CHARDONNAY •

“The 2018 Chardonnay (Sonoma County) is an absolutely delicious, accessible Chardonnay that offers tremendous quality for the money. Bright citrus, floral and orchard fruit notes abound in this super-expressive and inviting Chardonnay from ValravN. If there is a better Sonoma Coast Chardonnay out there for $20, I want to taste it. 89 points

• 2018 PINOT NOIR •

“The 2018 Pinot Noir is a fruity, forward wine to drink now and over the next few years. Sweet red cherry, exotic spice and dried rose petal and orange peel notes are nicely pushed forward. This is another delicious value-priced Pinot from ValravN that offers superb quality for the money.” 88 points

• 2017 CABERNET SAUVIGNON •

“The 2017 Cabernet Sauvignon is endowed with striking aromatic presence, ripe red fruit and fabulous balance. Juicy and inviting, the 2017 has so much to offer. It is one of the very best Sonoma Cabernets I have tasted in its price range.” 89 points

• 2018 ZINFANDEL •

“The 2018 Zinfandel is racy and exuberant, with tons of varietal character. This stylish, budget-friendly red hits all the right notes. Succulent red fruit, mint, cedar and sweet floral notes flesh out in a delicious, affordable wine that over-delivers—big time.” 90 points – not yet released
